

ATU Library How To:

Search the Law eBook collection- Bloomsbury Professional

The library subscribes to a number of eBooks that contain legal and legislative information. Many academic courses have a module which involves studying aspects of law, e.g., company law, medical law, copyright law etc. so the eBooks available through Bloomsbury Professional are an invaluable resource for legal information.

This collection of eBooks is not searchable through the Search + Find tool, so when you carry out a search on legal topics through Search + Find, these eBooks from Bloomsbury Professional will not be in your results.

1. There are two ways to access the Bloomsbury Professional eBooks –
 - Click on 'Collections' in the top right hand corner of the library homepage and select 'eBooks' from the dropdown menu
 - Select 'eBooks' underneath the Search + Find search box on the library homepage

2. Click on the green 'Bloomsbury Professional Law eBooks' button, underneath all the list of areas of law covered.

Bloomsbury Law eBooks

This collection includes eBooks which the libr...

- Contract Law
- Cyber Law
- Constitutional Law
- Irish Company Law
- Irish Commercial Law
- Irish Criminal Law
- Irish Property Law
- Irish Tax
- Irish Wills and Probate
- Intellectual Property and IT
- Mediation

Bloomsbury Professional Ireland

Bloomsbury Professional Law eBooks

3. The blue column on the left-hand side of the page 'Browse my Content' lists the areas of law that we subscribe to. They are organised into broad areas of law – Civil Litigation, Company/commercial, Criminal, Property, Tax, Wills and Probate, Mediation and Intellectual Property. To see what book titles are in any area, simply click on the + sign

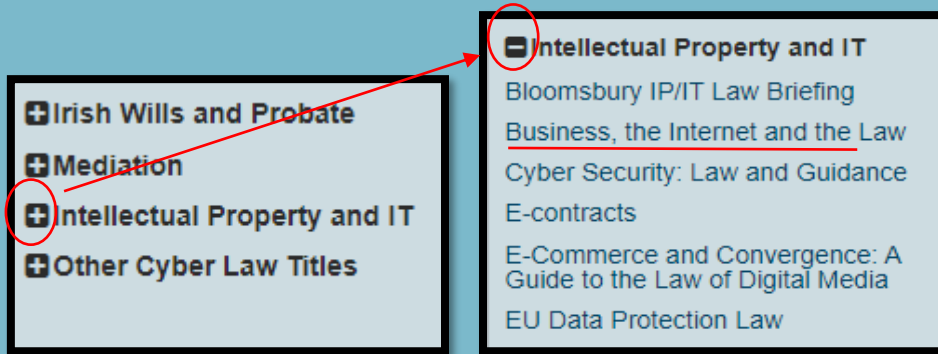

The screenshot shows the Bloomsbury Professional website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'All Content', 'Commentary', 'Legislation', 'Precedents', and 'News'. Below this is a 'Browse my Content' sidebar on the left, which lists various legal areas with expandable icons (+). A red circle highlights the 'Irish Civil Litigation' option. To the right of the sidebar is a 'New & Noteworthy' section featuring an article titled 'Corporate Administrations and Rescues Now Available' dated December 15, 2022. On the far right, there is a 'Browse my Content' panel that lists a detailed list of titles under the 'Irish Civil Litigation' category, including 'Ancillary Discovery', 'Byrne and McCutcheon on the Irish Legal System', 'Constitutional Law of Ireland', 'Contract Law', 'Court Applications under the Companies Acts', 'Divorce and Judicial Separation Proceedings in the Circuit Court: A Guide to Order 59', 'A Guide to Expert Witness Evidence', 'Busy Practitioner: Irish Civil Litigation', 'Case Summaries: Irish Civil Litigation', 'Irish Civil Litigation Update', 'The Irish Statute Book: A Guide to Irish Legislation', and 'Kelly: The Irish Constitution'. A red arrow points from the 'Irish Civil Litigation' option in the sidebar to the corresponding list of titles on the right.

There are 3 ways to search the eBooks

- A. Click into to a particular chapter and page of an eBook
- B. Search for words and phrases within a particular eBook
- C. Search for words and phrases across all the eBooks

A. Click into to a particular chapter and page of an eBook

On the homepage, in the blue column, find into the area of law you are interested in. To get a list of the eBook titles in that area click on the +. Then simply click on the title of the book you want.

The blue column now changes to the contents of that particular book, and is broken down into chapters.

Chapters

Click on the + beside the chapter to see the subtopics

Now we are in the page of the book. You can go to the next page using 'Next Document'

Search within results

Internet fraud and scams

Business, the Internet and the Law

Edited by: Susan Singleton

Publisher: Bloomsbury Professional Publication Date: October 2022

◀ Previous Document Next Document ▶

4.23

Internet fraud takes many forms. The law as it stands prohibits most of the common forms of such fraud whether they relate to the internet or other more traditional forms of deception. However, it is in the application of the law and its enforcement that the principal difficulties arise.

Obtaining goods by deception and other scams

4.24

In addition the obtaining of services, rather than goods, by deception has not been a specific offence under English law and does not breach the Theft Act 1968. Therefore, where a fraud relates to the provision of services rather than sale of goods over the

Export to Word

Next page

You can also turn this page into a Word document, so you can save it and add your own notes if you wish

In summary, you can read the page of a book, without having to type anything, by clicking on the + to open each section and subsection.

Browse my Content

- Irish Civil Litigation
- Irish Company and Commercial Law
- Irish Criminal Law
- Irish Property Law
- Irish Tax
- Irish Wills and Probate
- Mediation
- Intellectual Property and IT

Mediation

Intellectual Property and IT

Bloomsbury IP/IT Law Briefing

Business, the Internet and the Law

Cyber Security: Law and Guidance

E-contracts

E-Commerce and Convergence: A Guide to the Law of Digital Media

Contents

In this Issue - Issue 70, October 2022

- + 1 - Getting online in business
- + 2 - The domain name and trade marks
- + 3 - Copyright and database right
- + 4 - Security, confidentiality and employment issues

4 - Security, confidentiality and employment issues

Executive summary

E-mails

Standards for security

Internet fraud and scams

Bloomsbury
Homepage

Book
Titles

Chapters
of a book

Pages of the book

B. Search for words and phrases within a particular eBook

Same as before, on the homepage, in the blue column, find into the area of law you are interested in. To get a list of the eBook titles in that area click on the +. Then simply click on the title of the book you want.

The image shows a screenshot of a legal database interface. On the left is a sidebar titled "Browse my Content" with a list of legal topics. A red arrow points from the "Wylie on Irish Landlord and Tenant Law" entry in the sidebar to the main view. The main view features a search bar at the top left with the text "Search within book...". The title "Wylie on Irish Landlord and Tenant Law" is displayed in a large blue font. Below the title, the author "J.C.W. Wylie" is listed. To the right, there are fields for "ISBN: 9781526522030", "Edition: Fourth", "Publisher: Bloomsbury Professional", and "Law As Stated At: 1 May 2022". A "BUY BOOK" button is visible. Below the title and author information is a "Contents" section with a list of chapters, including "Chapter 1: Development of the Law", "Chapter 2: Nature of the Relation of Landlord and Tenant", and "Chapter 3: Other Relations". A book cover image is also shown.

Once you click into any book, 'Search within book' appears above the blue column. Simply type in your search terms. Using a double quotation mark will search for a phrase.

This is a close-up screenshot of the search bar in the book view. The search bar is a white input field with the placeholder text "Search within book..." and a magnifying glass icon to its right. The search bar is circled in red. Below the search bar, the title "Wylie on Irish Landlord and Tenant Law" and author "Author: J.C.W. Wylie" are visible.

There are 17 references in this book to “fixed term” and tenancy, and they are highlighted in grey on the page in which they appear

Click on any one of these references to go into the page of the book

II: Need for Notice Export to Word

Wylie on Irish Landlord and Tenant Law

Author: J.C.W. Wylie

Publisher: Bloomsbury Professional Edition: Fourth edition

Publication Date: 21 June 2022 Law Stated At: 1 May 2022

Previous Document Next Document

A At Common Law
[23.02]

The position at common law is that the need for notice, if any, varies according to the type of tenancy. On the other hand, no notice may be required to end occupation or use of land which does not amount to a tenancy, eg, a gratuitous licence 14 or lodging. 15

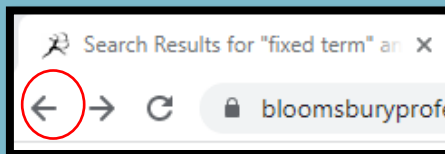

1 Fixed Term
[23.03]

The general rule is, as we see in a later chapter, that no notice is required to determine a fixed term tenancy – it determines by natural expiry at the end of the term in question. 16 We also see later that the same rule applies in other cases of “automatic” determination, eg, where the tenancy is to end on the happening of a stated event such as the dropping of a life

You can also turn this page into a Word document

To go back to the results page, click the back button in the toolbar

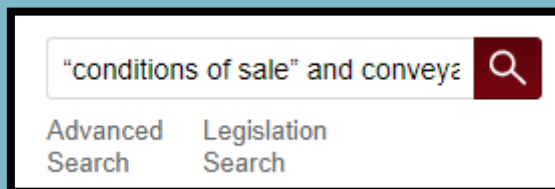

C. Search for words and phrases across all the eBooks

On the homepage the search box for searching across all the Bloomsbury eBooks in one go is in the top right hand corner.

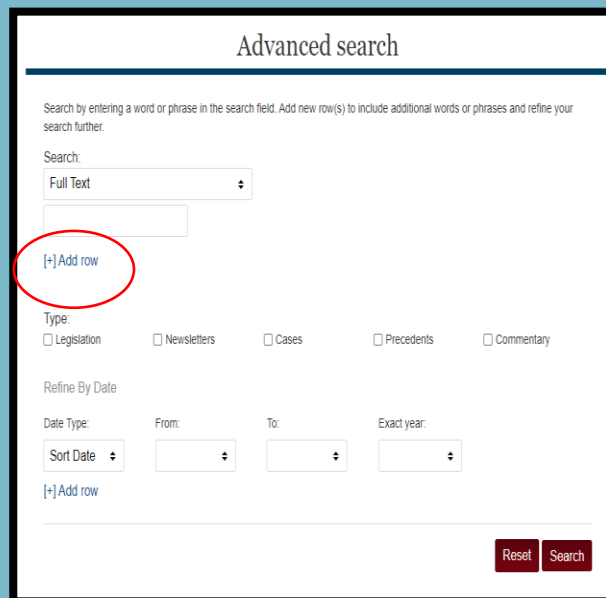

You can use the simple search box, or Advanced Search

“conditions of sale” and conveyancing and special in the simple search box

The Advanced Search allows you to add more rows if you want to put your search terms in different rows. Press the 'Search' button

Advanced search

Search by entering a word or phrase in the search field. Add new row(s) to include additional words or phrases and refine your search further.

Search:
Full Text

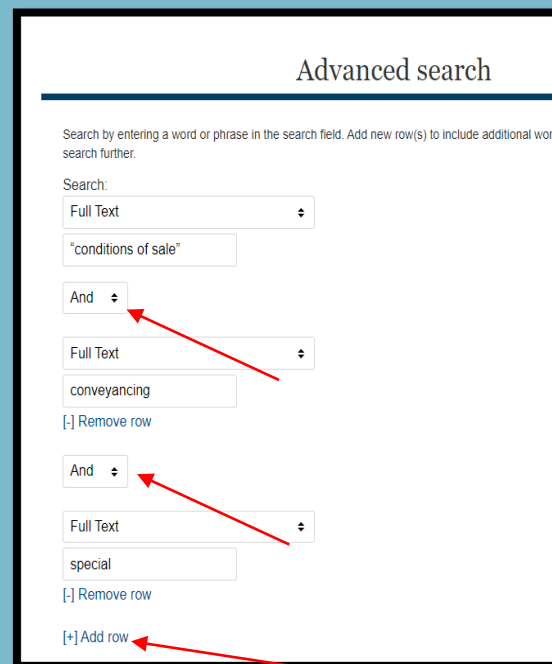

[+] Add row

Type:
 Legislation Newsletters Cases Precedents Commentary

Refine By Date
Date Type: From: To: Exact year:
Sort Date

[+] Add row

Reset Search

Advanced search

Search by entering a word or phrase in the search field. Add new row(s) to include additional words or phrases and refine your search further.

Search:
Full Text
"conditions of sale"

And

Full Text
conveyancing
[-] Remove row

And

Full Text
special
[-] Remove row

[+] Add row

The results page provides a number of options to help you refine the search further

1. You can search for another word or phrase within the results
2. You can pick a specific book the search terms are in
3. You can pick an area of law the results are in
4. You can select a jurisdiction

- 5. You can refine by years
- 6. Or you can simply click into a heading on the results page to read the page of the book

The screenshot shows a search results interface with the following components and callouts:

- 1: Points to the "Search within results" search bar.
- 2: Points to the "Refine Results" sidebar.
- 3: Points to the "Services" category in the sidebar.
- 4: Points to the "Date" filter in the sidebar.
- 5: Points to the year "2019" under the "Date" filter.
- 6: Points to the "Update No 19, July 2013" link in the first search result.

The sidebar (Refine Results) includes:

- Books
- Services
 - + Irish Civil Litigation (22)
 - + Irish Company and Commercial Law (2)
 - + Irish Criminal Law (2)
 - + Irish Property Law (21)
 - + Irish Tax (3)
 - + Irish Wills and Probate (2)
 - + Mediation (1)
 - + Intellectual Property and IT (25)
 - + Other Cyber Law Titles (1)
- Jurisdiction
 - Ireland (205)
 - UK (1)
 - EU (1)
- Date
 - 2020 (24)
 - 2019 (49)

The main results area shows:

- Search Results header
- Summary: "You are looking at 1 - 10 of 207 items for Full Text: 'conditions of sale'"
- Controls: "Items per page 10" and "Sort by Relevance"
- Three search results, each with a book cover thumbnail and a title link.